Theatre Notes

Those of you who remember The Odd Couple back in the 1970's will have recollections of Jack Lemon and Walter Matthau in the film version and Jack Klugman and Tony Randell in the television series taking the lead roles. In this, the female version, we have Jenni Freeman and Emma Breese facing up to the same predicaments as the original characters but with a feminine slant. We are pleased to welcome Emma to our stage for the first time.

Between the 25th and 28th of March, the Newtown Musical Theatre Company are presenting their version of that very popular musical "Oliver".

I trust you will give them your support.

Our next production will be held the week commencing 27th April. Tickets will be on sale for Theatre Club Book holders the week commencing 13th April and a week later for the General Public.

It just remains for me to wish you a pleasant evening.

Chairman
