Theatre Notes

Welcome to our Little Theatre and to our first production of a new season. The Society has reached a significant milestone in our history, in that, this play starts our fortieth season of productions at Powys Theatre. It is an achievement that we are very proud of. I applaud those members, past and present, whose vision it was to transform an old school into a theatre.

During the forty years this building has had its share of alterations and this year is no exception. We have upgraded the lighting in the foyer and added some more pictures to the walls. These changes, as well as others behind the scenes, have kept members busy throughout the Summer months.

Our next production will commence the week of the 9th February 2009 with booking from 26th January for Theatre Book holders and a week later for the general public.

The Society meets every Monday and Thursday evening, and I would like to invite anyone interested in aspects of theatre to join us. We are very keen to welcome new members to help ensure that this building will survive for another forty years.

Many thanks for your continued support and enjoy your evening.
