Theatre Notes

Welcome to the third play in this special Season, the Society's 75th and the 41st in this Theatre. We promised you "Dial M for Murder" by Frederick Knott, a repeat of one of the plays put on in the first Season at this theatre. Unfortunately, we learned that the licence for Amateur Production was withdrawn at the end of February this year, presumably because a professional tour is in the offing. This took us completely by surprise and meant a quick rethink. We hope you like our replacement choice. Francis Durbridge is a writer who weaves an interesting storyline and we hope to have done it justice.

We are very pleased to welcome new members, Sarah, onto our stage, and Daniel into the backroom staff, and a return to our stage of Emma, even though she is still "studying". Once again her cousin Jacob has helped us with our publicity photos. All are making valued contributions and we look forward to their involvement for many years to come.

Another unfortunate turn of events has meant a relocation and rescheduling of our planned celebratory Dinner Dance. This will now be held on September 4th at The Monty Club. All our Theatre Club members and past and present Society members will be sent full details in July.

We are however going ahead with our planned 4 Open Theatre days, June 15th to 18th inclusive and an extra play performed on 3 nights 16th, 17th and 18th June. These events will be advertised in the local press and details circulated. Free complimentary tickets for the Play will be available to our Theatre Club members on a first come first served basis.

We look forward to seeing you!
