Theatre Notes

Welcome to our new Season of plays at the Powys Theatre.

We begin with our President's production of an old favourite and are very pleased to introduce yet another newcomer to the stage. Dave Snowdon joined the Society twelve months ago with his wife Val and vowed to be a staunch member of the 'non-actors' union. However 'gentle' persuasion by the Chairman persuaded him otherwise! (He quietly admits he is enjoying himself)

We are also delighted to welcome the return of Frank Capener having recovered from his protracted illness. He is recognised as one of our most proficient actors and still has so much to offer the Society in terms of performances, and inspiration to us all, and as an extraordinary example of method and talent on the Amateur stage.

Providing it can be cast, our next play will be one written and produced by our member Clive Bundy. It is his first venture into both and hope you will be interested to support him and us in this new departure.

We hope you continue to enjoy our efforts, and may I take this early opportunity to wish you all a happy forthcoming festive Season.

N.B. 20 shillings = £1, 12 pence = 1 shilling; "haypenny" is half penny
