Theatre Notes

This, our second production of the Season, is the first for very many years without the usual valuable contributions from our President, Mrs Marjorie Meredith. As most of you will know, Marjorie suffered a major stroke in early December. We are pleased to report that she is making a slow recovery in the stroke unit in Newtown Hospital and I am sure you will join us in wishing her well and look forward to seeing her back with us. In the meantime we are all doing our best to continue the high standard of the entertainment provided by the Society that she loves so much.

For this production we had hoped to bring you a thriller written by one of our members but we were unable to cast it on this occasion. This has meant a postponement to next Season when we will try again.

We hope you enjoy the alternative presentation of a comedy thriller by Michael Pertwee. This play is a new venture for the Society and has stretched the prowess of several of the cast - and the Director! The development of young (and older!) members of the Society is pleasing to see and we welcome newcomers to the stage, whatever their age or previous experience! The Society continues to thrive and welcomes anyone who would like to join us, not only on the stage but in any of the capacities needed to put on a production.

Our final presentation of the Season will be a debut affair for Jackie Barnes as a Director. This will be at the end of April/beginning of May and we look forward to seeing you there, and thank you for your continued support.
