Theatre Notes

The society are pleased to welcome you to our second play of the 45th season at Powys Theatre. It also gives me great pleasure to welcome Judith Marvin as a newcomer to our stage.

This delightful play, directed by Martin Jones, shows off some wonderful characters which are perhaps familiar to anyone who has been involved in local village committees over the years. I'm sure you will enjoy the interactions between them in a play that is both funny and at times poignant.

We are still carrying out retrospective fund raising for the repairs to the roof that were carried out last summer (when it wasn't raining!) If you haven't already done so please consider "buying" a slate to help support the costs that were involved in this essential maintenance of our magnificent "little" theatre. Also please look out for members in costume at Morrisons at on Friday 11th April.

It is always sad to report the passing of those with a close association to our society, and non more so than Dorothy Whittaker Lumsden and Olwen Davies. Dorothy was involved for a number of years in the early days of the society and is fondly remembered by many members. Also, Olwen was a great supporter of the theatre, and was to be seen on front of house duty many times over the years. The society will miss them greatly.

On a lighter note please remember that we are always looking to welcome new members to our society to ensure its continued prosperity. So if you or somebody you know would like to try acting, help backstage or even just come for a social chat and a coffee, you would be most welcome. We continue to meet at 7:30 on Mondays and Thursdays throughout the year. We will start preparations for the final play of the season on Monday 10th February with the performances themselves starting on the week commencing 28th April 2014.

It now leaves me to wish you all a pleasant evening and enjoy the show.
