

Theatre Notes

The society welcomes you to the second play of the 46th season at Powys Theatre. We are pleased to present this delightful comedy by Anton Delmar and directed by Judith Marvin. This is Judith's' directorial debut at our little theatre, and the society wishes her well. Rehearsals have been enjoyed by cast and members alike and we are sure you will enjoy tonight's show as well. Be prepared to laugh away the winter blues.

We are hoping to present an evening of song and dance later this season. This will be a fundraiser towards the ongoing maintenance of our "Little" theatre. Please keep an eye out for details, as we always appreciate your support.

If you have any suggestions for possible future plays for our society to present, we would welcome your comments. Please email the society or leave a suggestion with our front of house teams before you head for home this evening.

Again I remind you that we are always looking to welcome new members to our society to ensure its continued prosperity. So if you or somebody you know would like to try acting, help backstage or even just come for a social chat and a cup of coffee, you and they would be most welcome. The next play will be performed in the week commencing 27th April 2015, so keep an eye on the local press and the notice boards at the front of the theatre.

It now leaves me to wish you all a pleasant evening and enjoy the show.
