

Theatre Notes

The society are delighted to welcome you to the first production of our 2015/2016 season, and our 47th here at Powys Theatre.

Martin Jones has chosen this hilarious comedy for the latest production, and the cast and crew have had great fun during rehearsals. Originally presented at the Theatre Royal Windsor in March 1983, we see well known TV gardening expert "Tom Lambert" as he receives a strange call from the Inland Revenue chasing the whereabouts of a certain "Miss Flint". He has never heard of her, but by lunchtime he knows everything and unfortunately wishes he didn't.

The society spent the summer break carrying out the usual maintenance and tidying. Some of you may have noticed the wall to the right of the building has been re-built and the society extends many thanks to the members who gave their time in this project. We have also continued our fundraising efforts and many of you will have seen some of our society members in costume at Morrisons and Tesco in last past few months. Your donations to the running of our little theatre are very much appreciated.

Remember, if you have any suggestions for possible future plays for our society to present, we would welcome your comments. Please email the society, leave us a message on our Facebook page or leave a note with our front of house teams before you head for home this evening.

As ever I would like to remind you that we are always looking to welcome new members to our society to ensure its continued prosperity. So if you or somebody you know would like to consider acting, helping backstage or even just come for a social chat and a cup of coffee, you and they would be most welcome. We can be contacted as above.

The next production will be in the week commencing 1st February 2016, and we look forward to seeing you then. Until then, enjoy the show and have a safe journey home.
