

THEATRE NOTES

The society is delighted to welcome you to the first production of our 2016/2017 season, and our 48th here at Powys Theatre.

Jan Fursier is directing this intriguing thriller by Greenwood and King. We hope you enjoy it with its numerous twists to keep you guessing.

The society spent the summer break carrying out the usual maintenance and tidying. A dedicated few members have re-clad our external store and we have generally tidied to keep things ready for our play season. We were also pleased to welcome the National Clown Theatre Group to our theatre back in July. An excellent time was had by our younger audience. Watch out for further alternative events at our theatre in the future.

Remember, if you have any suggestions for possible future plays for our society to present, we would welcome your comments. Please email the society, leave us a message on our Facebook page or leave a note with our front of house teams before you head for home this evening.

As ever I would like to remind you that we are always looking to welcome new members to our society to ensure its continued prosperity. It is certainly more challenging as we compete with other interests that people now enjoy (thanks to technology I guess), so if you or somebody you know would like to consider acting, helping backstage or even just come for a social chat and a cup of coffee, you and they would be most welcome. We can be contacted as above.

The next production will be in the week commencing 6th February 2017, and we look forward to seeing you then. We will have a first reading and casting session on November 17th for all those interested in taking part. Until then, enjoy the show and have a safe journey home.
