

Theatre Notes

Welcome to this our final production of the Season.

Within the constraints of our membership availabilities and acting abilities we have tried to present a varied programme. We hope you have enjoyed our offerings – an intriguing murder/mystery with strangely pertinent references to misbehaviours in the religious communities – a rib tickling comedy involving some cross dressing - and finally this psychological drama.

Our Youth Group have presented two light hearted plays, the latest of which was entered into the Montgomeryshire Community Drama Festival of One Act Plays. Fifteen of our young people took part, the youngest being 8 and the oldest 15. Their performances lead me to believe they have a VERY promising future treading the boards! Move over you oldies!!!! – well, maybe not just yet!

We are now looking forward to celebrating our GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY, Fifty years in our home, the POWYS THEATRE. Our Summer off-Season will be spent planning suitable and varied celebrations (in which we hope you will wish to participate) as well as the many and varied tasks involved with looking after our prized possession.

WATCH OUT FOR OUR PUBLICITY POSTERS AND NOTIFICATIONS.

Here's hoping we all have a glorious Summer.

Very best wishes

Jan Fursier
